A special thank you to all who have attended tonight's pre-festival recital. Preparing solos and ensembles for judge's comments and ratings is no small thing and your role in the audience tonight is crucial for our development as performing musicians. We appreciate your applause and kind words of encouragement, which help us do our best on Saturday. If you have supported one of these growing music students and encouraged them at home in their private practice, THANK YOU.

You are making a difference.
